

Hyrock is an independent mortgage and real estate expert for sophisticated private and institutional clients in Switzerland. For our office in Geneva, we are looking for a motivated and service-oriented

Junior Mortgage & Credit Risk Analyst (m/f)

80 - 100%

You support our advisors in serving demanding clients and will gradually take on more responsibility, eventually managing selected clients independently and with the required diligence. In addition, you will contribute to the further development of the company.

Your Responsibilities

- Active involvement in the acquisition, structuring, and execution of complex real estate financings
- Independent analysis of real estate projects, business plans, and financing structures
- Participation in the placement of large mortgages and their distribution to banks, insurance companies, and investors
- Structuring and implementation of our own financing solutions, in particular:
 - Bridge Loans
 - Mezzanine / subordinated financing
- Preparation of financial models, credit applications, term sheets, and investor presentations
- Direct client interaction with investors, developers, family offices, and entrepreneurs
- Coordination of due-diligence processes with lawyers, valuers, notaries, and investors
- Managing transactions throughout the entire deal lifecycle up to closing
- Assessing the risks associated with mortgages for all customers
- Monitoring loans on the Company's balance sheet
- Monitoring risks throughout the entire lending process
- Supporting and deputizing for the Geneva Branch Representative

Your Profile

- Completed education in banking or insurance, ideally BoA / MoA in Finance or Real Estate. Alternatively: Completed secondary school education with first work experience in Real Estate, Financing or Risk Management
- Strong interest in Real Estate Private Debt and complex capital structures
- Excellent analytical skills and understanding of ranking, collateral, and risk
- Sales affinity and enjoyment of direct client interaction
- Entrepreneurial mindset, initiative, and high commitment to quality
- Excellent French and English skills; German is an advantage

We offer

You can expect a collaborative and varied working environment in a performance-driven, dynamic company.

- A unique best-in-class education at the intersection of real estate and finance, combining in-depth expertise in both fields with hands-on experience
- Very steep learning curve in a specialised real-estate-private-debt boutique
- Broad responsibilities and an active role in acquisition and execution
- Direct access to decision-makers and demanding clients
- Performance-based compensation with attractive development opportunities
- Flat hierarchies within a corporate culture characterised by strong teamwork, respect, and collegiality

Are you ready to take on responsibility and grow with us?

We look forward to receiving your application addressed to Julien Moret, Hyrock SA, Rue du Mont-Blanc 12, 1201 Geneva (moret@hyrock.ch).
